

Perseverance

Emerald Class opened the collective worship with scenarios with when they need to show perseverance.

You're struggling with your reading
and you want to give up.

Your friend is grumpy
and you're getting impatient.

Emerald Class created an acrostic poem about perseverance and shared it with the school. They discussed how we can keep on trying.

They finished the collective worship singing the school's Tryosaur song