

Perfectly Norman

1. How would you explain this story to somebody who has never heard it?

2. What would you do if you had wings?

3. The story describes Norman's wings as extraordinary. What does extraordinary mean? Can you think of any other words that mean the same?

4. If you could meet Norman, what advice would you give him about his wings?

5. What makes you unique and special?