

Once upon a time news

Monday 1st February 2021

Price: Two magic beans

Wonderful wolf is innocent!

The honest kind wolf is put in prison.

On Sunday darkness fell upon fairy tale land. The three little pigs lost their houses because of an unfortunate accident. The wolf was carefully making his lovely granny a delicious birthday cake when he realised that he didn't have any sugar. The delightful wolf wanted to ask his neighbours to borrow some sugar but didn't know it would end in such disaster.

At around 2pm yesterday afternoon the kind wolf was rudely arrested by the local police. The police made a statement telling everybody that the wolf had not only destroyed the pigs houses but had also eaten two of the little pigs. Dry yellow straw and thick long sticks can be seen scattered around Chinny chin lane.

"That old wolf said he'd huff and puff my house down! I thought he might try to climb down my chimney," the oldest little pig told Once upon a time news.

The oldest little pig is currently safely at home whilst helping police with their investigation. However, the poor wolf is suffering in the cold hideous prison waiting for someone to listen to his side of the story. Will our wonderful wolf ever be freed?

Can you label the following features in the newspaper report?

Headline

Caption

Quote

Introduction

Picture

Conclusion

Main report

Can you find where the report answers the following questions? Can you underline these parts?

Who?

When?

Why?

What?

Where?

Extra challenge!

1. Choose a colour pen or pencil and highlight or underline all of the suffix words you can spot.
2. Choose a second colour pen or pencil and highlight or underline all of the conjunction words you can spot.
3. Choose a third colour pen or pencil and highlight or underline all of the adjectives you can spot.