

Spring 2 Week 1 Monday 22nd February:

Literacy: Pirate punch recipe

This week we are going to learn a recipe for pirate punch! Today we are going to read through the recipe and then try to follow the recipe ourselves. We are going to carefully follow each step to make the punch and then taste it for ourselves.

Finally, we are going to rate the punch out of five skulls (rather than stars) and write a review. Follow Miss Webster making the punch on tapestry.

Maths: Time

This week and next week we are going to explore time, through telling and reading the time to the hour, half hour, 15 minutes and 5 minute intervals. Please watch both of today's maths videos via Tapestry. The first is our maths lesson going through all three activities, the second is a 'quick fire' telling the time video.

Theme: AHOY!

Our new theme this half term is called 'Ahoy!' and we are starting our theme by thinking all about pirates. Today we are going to learn about sea shanties and pirate songs. Follow the BBC link to listen to some pirate song examples. We are going to start by listening to 'When I was one, I sucked my thumb'.

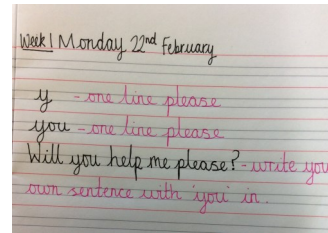

You are going to listen to this lots of times to learn the words and create actions to go with it.

Once you have learnt the words and created your actions, you are then going to perform it to someone else in your house. After this, you can take a look at some of the other pirate songs on the website such as 'I'm a pirate'.

Handwriting: 'y'

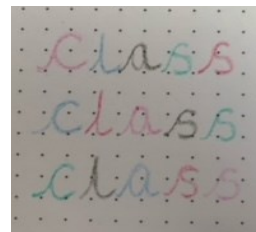

Please take a look at today's handwriting practice photo that is uploaded onto Tapestry.
