Summer 2 2023

Week 2

Reminders.....

Remember that mobile phones should not be used on school grounds. Many parents/adults have been observed using them when dropping off or collecting children and this breaches our school policy.

Please can parents/adults remember that pupils and siblings must not use the trim trail or play apparatus before or after school. If an incident happens we are not insured for this.

Once again we ask that you do not park down Washbridge, beside the school. It is becoming dangerous. Traffic wardens have been in attendance.

After your child has had sickness/ diarrhoea, please do not send them back until 48 hours after the last

On Wednesday each class will have a session with Hannah from Calm cats.

Each session uses music, movement and mindfulness to help children relax their bodies and minds whilst teaching them skills to regulate their emotions, feelings and thoughts. We are sure the children will have lots of fun.

Well done to everybody for participating in the NSPCC Childhood day mile- we had lots of fun and danced a mile on the school field in the sunshine.

Thank you to the families that bought a ticket for the summer raffle and to those that attended the family Zumba picnic-it was a great day. We managed to raise £299. This will be used to purchase new books for our foundation subjects.
